STOP HUMAN RIGHTS VIOLATIONS

1 BE IT ENACTED BY THE STUDENT CONGRESS HERE ASSEMBLED THAT:

2 Article I: Countries eligible for African Growth and Opportunity Act benefits must 3 submit to an investigation into human rights violations by either the 4 Secretary of State or the African Union. Any country found to have
5 serious human rights violations by either party will have 5 years to show
6 significant progress on restoring those rights, which will be determined by 7 another investigation.

8 Article II: “Human rights violations” will be defined as a deprivation of any right
9 enumerated in the Universal Declaration of Human Rights. Sufficient
10 progress will be determined by the investigating party.

11 Article III: This legislation will be implemented on October 1st 2019.

12 Article IV: The Secretary of State will enforce this legislation.

13 A. If a nation does not submit to an investigation by either party, the 14 United States will suspend all anti-terror funding to that nation and any
15 coalition of which the offending country is a member.

16 B. If insufficient progress is shown after the 5 year period, the United 17 States will suspend all anti-terror funding to that nation and any
18 coalition of which the offending country is a member.

19 Article V: All other laws in conflict with this new policy shall hereby be declared
20 null and void.
